

WCA H.S. 2nd SEMESTER EXAMS 5/29-31/2019

1. Semester exams are given for high school courses only.
2. Most courses will be giving semester exams, i.e. math, science, history, English, Bible, etc. A few courses do not lend themselves to semester exams but students may be given semester exams in them if the teacher chooses.
3. The semester exams account for 20% of the student's grade for the semester.
4. Defined below is WCA open campus for HS students during exam week:
  - Students are only required to arrive at school in time for their first exam of the day.
  - Once on campus, students may leave when their last exam of the day is completed. The only exception: students with a break longer than one hour may leave campus and return later.
  - Students who finish an exam early are required to stay in the exam until the bell rings, unless the school office calls for early dismissal.
  - Students who are on campus but not taking an exam are required to attend a supervised study hall.
5. Students who need to make up exams due to an approved excused absence will coordinate with their teacher.
5. Attire for semester exams is regular school uniform (no Friday dress down day).
